

2015 in figures

New Icsi members

- Région Haute-Normandie
- Institut de soudure
- Vinci Energies International & Systems

Almost 60 organisations (industry, regional, universities, unions and associations) are members of Icsi.

Publications

- 9 Cahiers de la sécurité industrielle
- 3 Regards sur la sécurité industrielle
- 8 Tribunes de la sécurité industrielle

A total of more than 80 publications in French, English, Spanish, Portuguese and Italian.

Discussion groups

4 groupes d'échange

- The negotiated social contract – 'living together' around industrial facilities
- Safety culture in construction projects
- Prevention of serious and fatal accidents
- The enquiry process following major technological accidents

1 working group

- Safety culture

Conferences, colloquia and seminars

- Coffee morning 'Skills and safety culture' (April 2015)
- Conference 'Good question! Reflecting on sharing and learning from experience mechanisms' (April 2015)
- Masters' meeting 'Sharing experience to develop the safety culture skills of tomorrow' (June 2015)
- Préventica - Midi-Pyrénées major risk forum 'Perspectives on living together with at-risk industry' (June 2015)
- Panel discussion 'Industrial risk management in Haute-Normandie' (June 2015)
- Research Seminar 'Negotiation and compromise' (July 2015)
- Research Day 'Definition, control and communication of industrial risk' (July 2015)
- Icsi Annual Conference 'The Collective, a fundamental dimension of safety culture' (September 2015)
- International Research Seminar 'Skills and competencies for safety' (November 2015)

Expertise and consultancy

- 30 consultancy projects in France and around the world
- 13 members provided with support, 5 in the context of an overall approach to changing safety culture

International

- Icsi works in around 10 countries, including Angola, Argentina, Belgium, Bolivia, Chile, France, Spain, the United Arab Emirates and Switzerland.
- 3 university collaborations:
 - University of San Andrés (Argentina)
 - Keio University (Japan)
 - University of Genoa (Italy)

Professional development

- 1500 trainees
- More than 120 sessions, including:
 - 9 inter-company sessions in Europe
 - 114 intra-company sessions worldwide

E-learning

- 9 founding members of the online resource centre, the 'Safety Academy'
- 1 webinar: 'Some myths about industrial safety' with 200 participants
- E-learning Chile: 20 graduates
- E-learning Argentina: 18 graduates

Research

- 2 strategic analyses launched over 18 months:
 - 'Skills & competencies for safety'
 - 'Safety culture and models'
- 1 European research project conducted by Icsi experts:
 - 'Promoting safety as an emergent property of a system resilient to managers'
- 1 Icsi-Fonsci R&D project:
 - 'Trade-offs and decision making under uncertainty'

Post-Master's degrees

- 45 students trained in 2 Post-Master's degrees:
 - Global Technological and Environmental Risk Management (Grite) with 25 students
 - Safety engineering and management (Seam) with 20 English-speaking students
- Including 5 part-time students and 4 others sponsored by industry.